What's New in the?

Fast & Furious 7 Screensaver enables you to decorate your computer screen with scenes from the latest movie in the Fast and Furious series. The screensaver brings an animated slideshow, with high-quality images, posters and other graphic promotional materials. You may change the speed of the slides and the transition effects. Bring scenes from Fast 7 to your desktop Fast & Furious 7 Screensaver displays a slideshow of high-quality photos from the popular movie and series. Just like any other screensaver, this application can automatically start the slideshow, in fullscreen mode, when your computer enters idle mode. The screensaver is designed to cover your desktop and to thus hide the opened applications, as well as to save power. Fast & Furious 7 Screensaver brings a series of photos and posters, depicting characters or significant scenes from the movie. The dynamic feeling is given not only by the animated transitions, but also by the graphic effects in the photos. Control the speed of the slideshow Fast & Furious 7 Screensaver features a series of photos depicting memorable moments from the Fast and Furious series. The images alternate randomly, after being displayed for a certain duration and are followed by animated transitions. You may change the duration of a picture's display on the screen, in seconds, as well as the speed of the transition. Moreover, the images can automatically be resized as they are displayed and you may enable or disable the audio background. The slideshow is automatically closed at one (or all) of the following actions: mouse move, click or keystroke. Quick transition effects modification The slideshow in Fast & Furious 7 Screensaver includes a large series of transition effects that you can easily customize. The Effects tab in Settings displays a list of all the transitions that you can enable or disable: all you need to do is check/uncheck any of the effects. Moreover, you can set the duration of each effect.
